

SMALLEST SOUBRETTE IN THE WORLD, DOLLY THEOBALD, 4 FEET 4 INCHES TALL.

This little lady, whose head does not reach to an ordinary woman's waist, is the tiniest soubrette that ever appeared upon the stage. She posed before the Journal camera in the costumes in which she sings and dances.

ONE DAY'S DOINGS OF THE SUMMER RESORT GIRL.---

MARIE RECESTE, IDA BROOKS AND JEANETTE BEJEARD, OF THE "WHIRL OF THE TOWN"

"Late for Breakfast"—A regular morning scene at the dining room entrance three minutes after the doors are closed.

"A Man! A Man!" Familiar sight on the piazza when the 'bus pulls up with the passengers from the morning train.

"Drying Their Hair"—A pr... furnishes excuses for upon the beach c...

... consumes he... es that stre... but admire.

